Is a print disability keeping you or someone you know from enjoying books?

YOUR LOCAL PUBLIC LIBRARY CAN HELP

Through the Centre for Equitable Library Access (CELA) and the National Network for Equitable Library Service (NNELS), public libraries in Saskatchewan now offer more than 400,000 resources designed for people who cannot read traditional print due to a visual, physical or cognitive disability. For more information, please visit your local public library.