What’s new at the Multitype Library Board?

December 2016

MULTITYPE LIBRARY BOARD NEWS
The Board held a meeting on December 5, 2016 at the University of Regina. The meeting gave Board members an opportunity to review the role of the board and ongoing programs.

The Board will meet again in January 2017 to plan their community meeting and the MDLP AGM which takes place on April 13, 2017.

MULTITYPE DATABASE LICENSING PROGRAM (MDLP)

Review Committee
The MDLP Review Committee met several times between June and December 2016. In September, the Review Committee created and distributed a survey to MDLP partners to gather feedback on the scope of the review. The Committee will present a recommended review process to the MDLP partners at the AGM in April 2017.

Review Committee members include:
Melanie Hodges Neufeld (Chair), Melissa Bennet, Elgin Bunston, Sean Brooks, Katie Edwards, Colleen Murphy and Laura Warner.

MDLP Committee
The MDLP Committee will meet, in January 2017, to review pricing quotes for databases in the Core Collection and develop recommendations for the 2017/18 collection renewal.

MDLP Committee members include:
Sean Brooks, Elgin Bunston, Robin Canham, Sherry Chase, Beth Côté, Michelle Giese, Cerys Gordon, Anne Grumbly, Jaclyn McLean, Barbara Nelke, and Andrea Newland.

Secretariat support from: Brenda Dougherty, Regan Gunningham and Jack Ma.

Sector Highlights

SASKATCHEWAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION (SLA)
The 2017 Saskatchewan Libraries Conference celebrates the SLA 75th anniversary.

Bill Waizer, author and historian, will deliver the Mary Donaldson Memorial Lecture on May 3, 2017.

Bill’s most recent book, A World We Have Lost: Saskatchewan Before 1905, won the 2016 Governor General's Literary Award for Non-Fiction.

In March 2017, Saskatchewan's first ever province-wide community reading initiative will launch. SLA is asking everyone in the province to read The Education of Augie Merasty, by Joseph Auguste Merasty with David Carpenter.

Look for One Book, One Province special events and activities at your local library in March.
POST-SECONDARY LIBRARIES
The University of Saskatchewan appointed Melissa L. Just as dean of the University Library. Ms. Just, from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N.J, will begin February 1, 2017.

The University of Regina, Archer Library, now has two treadmill desks available for patron use. Patrons can walk while they read or work on a laptop.

SPECIAL LIBRARIES
Provincial Library and Literacy Office welcomed Brenda Dougherty on December 12, 2016. Brenda is the new Director of Library Accountability and Administration. She also oversees the work of the Multitype Development Unit.
