MULTITYPE LIBRARY BOARD NEWS
The Board held a teleconference on January 27, 2017. The meeting gave Board members an opportunity to start planning their annual community meeting.

The Board will meet next at their community meeting and the MDLP AGM. These events take place at the George Bothwell Branch of the Regina Public Library (Southland Mall) on April 13, 2017. The community meeting will focus on library truth and reconciliation initiatives.

MULTITYPE DATABASE LICENSING PROGRAM (MDLP)
MDLP Committee
The MDLP Committee met in January and February to finalize the MDLP Annual Report and AGM package. The package contains 2016-17 highlights, usage statistics and recommendations about the 2017-18 collection renewal and partner contributions.

TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION
The Library Toolshed is looking for library developed Truth and Reconciliation (TRC) programs. Their aim is to highlight the excellent TRC programs developed in BC, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba and to share them with any library staff looking to develop their own TRC resources.

Please go here to share your experiences running your TRC programs and upload any related resources: http://www.thealbertalibrary.ab.ca/truth-and-reconciliation-submissions-library-toolshed

Once submitted, they will add your resources to the Library Toolshed.

Sector Highlights

SASKATCHEWAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION (SLA)

Libraries throughout the province are planning One Book events. One Book, One Province will connect communities through reading and conversation.

The One Book title, selected by SLA members, is The Education of Augie Merasty by Joseph Auguste Merasty with David Carpenter.

The first event will take place on March 1, 2017 at the First Nations University of Canada, Regina. This event is part of the provincial reading tour David Carpenter is embarking upon. Look for events at your local library throughout the month of March.

For more information on One Book, One Province events, visit the SLA website: http://saskla.ca/program/one-book-one-province

POST-SECONDARY LIBRARIES

On February 8, 2017 the Dr. John Archer Library, University of Regina, hosted a Beyond the Book Lecture Series - What is Aboriginal Storytelling? featuring Dickie Yuzicapi.

The University of Saskatchewan also celebrated Saskatchewan Aboriginal Storytelling Month with Marjorie Beaucage screening her latest film, Giving Back.

ARCHIVES

The Saskatchewan Council for Archives and Archivists (SCAA) produced postcards and bookmarks for members to help celebrate the 12th annual Archives Week.

The SCAA and communities across Saskatchewan celebrated Archives Week throughout the province February 5-11, 2017.
