This list is not meant to be a definitive list, but as a starting point for patrons searching for materials related to the residential schools, 60s Scoop, and reconciliation.

Your Saskatchewan Public Libraries hope you will find this list helpful.

Materials can be found in your local library or through the province-wide collection. Also, many titles are available through Saskatchewan’s extensive eBook collection.

To access materials you must have a valid Saskatchewan Library Card, which can be obtained for free, with valid ID and proof of address, from your nearest library branch.
